Wildflower Seeds Given at “Lorax” Movie Opening

The Snyder County Conservation District made wildflower seed packets for distribution to children attending the opening of the movie Dr. Seuss' The Lorax at the Cinema Center on Friday, March 2, 2012.

Two hundred fifty seed packets were made by Jason Winey, Watershed Specialist, and Rachel Naylor, Nutrient Management Specialist.

The Cinema Center is a business inside the Susquehanna Valley Mall, located at 1 Susquehanna Valley Mall Drive, Selinsgrove, within the village of Hummels Wharf, PA.
