Women in Agriculture Forum Held at Local Business

The Snyder County Conservation District held its 5th annual Women in Ag Forum on Saturday, April 2, 2011, at the Shade Mountain Winery north of Middleburg. Seventy-five people were present during the meeting.

The forum was designed especially for women to learn about the current issues that affect their health, families and livelihood.

Speakers at the event were as follows:

- KJ Reimensnyder-Wagner, local performer and motivational speaker (standing, lower left photo) talks about the importance of local agriculture.
- Dr. Jackie Rapp, local veterinarian regarding animal welfare issues.
- Beth Jordan, RN from Evangelical Hospital (standing, lower right photo) gave a impassioned talk about breast cancer awareness.
- Norm Conrad, Penn State Cooperative Extension, regarding household products and gardening.
- Other speakers included Shawn Frantz, AgChoice Farm Credit; Missy Weidensaul, PA State Dairy Princess and Shane Eia, Natural Resource Conservation Service.

Financial and other support for this project is provided by the Pennsylvania Association of Conservation Districts, Inc. through a grant from the Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection under Section 319 of the Clean Water Act, administered by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. Additional assistance came from AgChoice Farm Credit of Lewisburg, PA.
