2. INTRODUCTION TO INSTRUCTIONS FOR PRO-SE CUSTODY ACTIONS

This packet will help you get an Order for custody or visitation on your own. "Pro se" is a legal term that means you are doing it on your own, without an attorney.

There are other words that have special meanings you should know about. Under the rules of court, the following words may mean things you wouldn't otherwise expect:

"Parental duties." Includes meeting the physical, emotional and social needs of the child

"Partial physical custody." The right to assume physical custody of the child for less than a majority of the time

"Physical custody." The actual physical possession and control of a child

"Primary physical custody." The right to assume physical custody of the child for the majority of time

"Shared legal custody." The right of more than one individual to legal custody of the child

"Shared physical custody." The right of more than one individual to assume physical custody of the child, each having significant periods of physical custodial time with the child

"Sole legal custody." The right of one individual to exclusive legal custody of the child

"Sole physical custody." The right of one individual to exclusive physical custody of the child.

"Supervised physical custody." Custodial time during which an agency or an adult designated by the court or agreed upon by the parties monitors the interaction between the child and the individual with those rights

Before you begin, read completely each set of instructions.

3. GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR CHILD CUSTODY AND VISITATION

These guidelines are provided to help you and the other parent be responsible, reasonable, and flexible in carrying out a child custody and visitation schedule for the best interest of your child. Naturally, they are general and do not address every problem.

Many misunderstandings arise because one parent does not inform the other parent of significant events in the child's development, school problems or successes, athletic events, medical/dental issues, allergies or medication needs, recitals or church activities. Both parents have a right to be involved in the child's significant events. Please remember to inform the other parent in time to prepare for that involvement.

1. The court order or agreement generally provides a schedule which must be followed unless the parties agree to change it.

2. Use the court order or agreement as the basic blueprint and adapt it to fit your changing needs.
3. However, if you cannot agree to changes with the other parent, then you both must obey the schedule set out in the court order or agreement.
4. If there are disputes or disagreements about the meaning of the order or agreement or if there are substantial changes in your or the other parent's living situation, contact your lawyer or the court. Do not simply disobey the order or agreement.
5. Neither parent generally has the right to be in the other's house without express permission.
6. Neither parent should use illegal drugs or drink an excessive amount of alcohol at any time, but especially not before or during periods of custody or visitation.
7. Transportation of the child by car by either parent (or anyone else) should be in a car which is in good running condition, currently inspected, registered, and insured, and driven in a safe manner by a responsible driver with a current valid license. A car seat for infants must be used. If only one parent has a car seat, it should be loaned to the other parent for use when the child is in that parent's custody.
8. The child should be ready to be picked up on time. The parent doing the transporting should be on time.
9. A parent should not expect to receive unscheduled or late night visits or to make changes in the schedule without adequate advance notice to the other parent. Call first or arrange it ahead of time.
10. The best time to agree on unscheduled visits or changes is at the end of the previous visit.
11. Both parents should recognize that illness, work schedules, car problems, and special opportunities may require changes, but that changes must not be proposed simply to prevent or make difficult the other parent's right to visit.
12. Both parents should be reasonable and flexible in making or responding to requests for changes.
13. Neither parent should threaten, harass, assault, or provoke the other parent.
14. Neither parent should curse at or run down the other parent, especially not in the child's presence.
15. Both parents should remember that it is generally in the child's best interests to know, love, and respect both parents.
16. Children should not be used as messengers or intermediaries between parents. Parents should communicate directly with each other about custody matters.

4. HOW TO FILL OUT THE FORM OF CUSTODY COMPLAINT

Introduction. The custody complaint is the document that identifies the parties and children. It gives the court basic facts about the situation.

Complete the entire Complaint. Do not leave any blank spaces.

Please note: DO NOT PROVIDE MINOR CHILDREN'S NAMES OR DATES OF BIRTH ANYWHERE WITHIN THIS PAPERWORK EXCEPT WITHIN THE CONFIDENTIAL FORM

- a. When you fill in the missing information, print in ink or type. The forms must be neat and readable.
- b. The Complaint is in the form required by the courts. Some questions and facts are repeated. Answer every question.
- c. On some questions, you are given two possible answers in parentheses [()]. Choose, circle and/or fill in the correct answer; cross out the one that is wrong.

- e. If you do not know the answer, mark "unknown".

Paragraph by paragraph instructions.

Caption. Above the words "Complaint for Custody" is the part of the form known as the caption. Fill in the names of the parties "plaintiff" and "defendant." You are the plaintiff; the other parent is the defendant. If someone else claims or has custody, he/ she should be identified as a defendant also. You should not write any number in the caption; the Prothonotary will assign a number when the papers are filed.

- 1-3. Give your complete name and address, the defendant's complete name and address, and the names, addresses and ages of each child involved. Again do not include minor children's names or dates of birth.

Fill in the blank regarding whether the child was or was not born out of wedlock.

Next, fill in the name of the person or persons with whom the child/children currently live.

Think about all the places where the child has lived over the last five years. The first column should list in order the dates between moves; the first entry should start with the date of the oldest address; the last entry should give the date of the last move through the present.

For each period between moves, list the address for that period in the middle column.

For each address, list in the third column all the persons who lived with the children at that address and for that period.

Next, fill in the requested information about the mother of the child/children.

Next, fill in the requested information about the father of the child/children.

4. Fill in the blanks.
5. Fill in the blanks.
6. Circle "has" or "has not", whichever applies. If you circled "has", please fill in the information requested on the line provided.

7. Provide the necessary information about other persons who may claim custody rights to the child/children. If you don't know of any such person, answer "none". "WHEREFORE" Circle the type of custody you seek. If you are not sure, read the definitions at the beginning of these instructions.

VERIFICATION Date and sign the verification. You doing so means you are telling the truth about your answers, and can be punished for any false statement.

CERTIFICATION of Compliance Statement/Form: Sign and date. You doing so means you have complied with the court'

You are now ready to go on to the form Mediation Scheduling Order.

5. HOW TO FILL OUT THE ORDER FOR THE MEDIATION ORIENTATION SESSION

After you complete the complaint, you should fill in the form entitled "ORDER". This form is the Order that will initiate your mediation orientation session.

You only need to fill in the names of the parties, plaintiff and defendant, in the "caption" as you did for the form of Complaint. The caption should be the same on all the papers you fill out.

DO NOT FILL IN ANY OTHER BLANKS ON THE FORM OF ORDER.

Arrange the form of order and the form of complaint so that the form of Order is the top, covering page, and put them aside.

Later on, you will need to make at least two (2) photocopies of the package containing the order and complaint. (If you have named more than one defendant, you will need one (1) extra photocopy for each additional defendant. For example, if you named two (2) defendants, you will need three (3) copies.)

Since there are other documents you may need to make photocopies of, you may wish to hold off on making copies of the form of order and complaint until you have completed the remaining forms.

Once you have made copies, staple one form of order on top of one form of complaint for as many copies as you have made, plus the originals. Put all the copies aside.

You are now ready to go on to the form of Petition for Waiver of Costs.

6. HOW TO FILL OUT THE PETITION FOR WAIVER OF COSTS

INTRODUCTION. In order to file a new court action, there are usually filing fees which must be paid to the Prothonotary. Those fees change from time to time. You can check with the Prothonotary to find out how much it usually costs to file.

There may be other costs to consider. If no agreement is reached about custody, and the court has to decide who the children will live with, it may wish to order home studies or psychological evaluations of the children and parties. These things may cost more money. If the parties can afford it, the costs are usually placed on them by the court.

However, if you don't think you can pay the filing fees or other costs, you can ask the court to waive some or all of the costs.

If you can afford to pay the filing costs, you should. If you do pay the filing costs, you won't need to ask the court to waive costs at this time. (If, later on, you face costs you don't think you can afford, you can file at that time.)

On the other hand, if you cannot afford to pay the filing fee now, you will need to fill out another form.

The form you need to fill out is the Petition for Waiver of Costs. Once filed, the court will consider the information in your petition to decide whether to permit you to go forward without having to prepay filing fees. If the court later orders home studies or professionals to interview the children or parties, your petition may relieve you of some or all of those costs as well.

FILLING OUT THE FORM

Caption. Once again, you must fill in the names of the parties plaintiff and defendant in the "caption". The caption should be the same as on the form of complaint and form of order of court. You do not need to fill in the number of the case, which will be assigned by the Prothonotary.

3 The form asks you to fill in facts about your personal situation and finances, including your employment, income, expenses, debts and assets. Be sure to include income from all sources, including government benefits like public assistance, unemployment compensation, or food stamps. Don't forget money you may get from your spouse if you are married, from parents, friends or family, for from an order for child support. Be sure to include all payment obligations, such as utility, food and clothing expenses. Finally, identify all persons that depend on your income for support, including children and your spouse, if any. DO NOT USE MINOR CHILDREN'S NAMES, use CONFIDENTIAL FORM for all this information.

4 and 5 Be sure to read these paragraphs. They require you to inform the court of any improvement in your financial circumstances that would permit you to pay some or all of the costs you are asking the court to waive. When you date and sign the petition after paragraph 5, you are promising that the information you have filled in is true. You can be punished for any false statement.

7. FILLING OUT THE ORDER FOR WAIVER OF COSTS

Caption Fill in the names of parties- plaintiff and defendant as you have done on the other forms. Do not fill in the number of the court action. The number will be assigned by the Prothonotary.

There is nothing more for you to fill out on this form. If the court grants the petition, your custody action can proceed.

Place the form of Order for Waiver of Costs on top of the Petition for Waiver of Costs. You will need to make one (1) copy. (If you did not make copies of the complaint for Custody and scheduling Order of Court, you should do so at this time. Refer to heading number 4.

HOW TO FILL OUT THE FORM OF SCHEDULING ORDER OF COURT.) Staple one form Order for Waiver of Costs on top of each of the two (2) copies of Petition for Waiver of Costs. You are now ready to file all the papers with the Prothonotary.

8. HOW TO FILL OUT THE CRIMINAL/ABUSE RECORD VERIFICATION FORM

Caption. Once again, you must fill in the names of the parties, plaintiff and defendant, in the "caption". The caption should be the same as on the form of complaint and form of order of court. You do not need to fill in the number of the case, which will be assigned by the Prothonotary.

Follow the Instructions on the first page of the form. Note that the form applies to you and any other adults living in your household. You must provide answers for every offense. You must also provide answers to questions 3, 4, and 5.

After you have completed the form, please sign the form and print your name on the line underneath your signature.

Included in the forms is an additional Criminal/Abuse Record Verification Form. You must also serve both your completed and a blank Criminal/Abuse Verification Form on the opposing parties. This additional form should be left blank for the opposing party to complete.

9. HOW TO FILL OUT THE ENTRY OF APPEARANCE OF A SELF-REPRESENTED PARTY

Caption. Once again, you must fill in the names of the parties, plaintiff and defendant, in the "caption". The caption should be the same as on the form of complaint and form of order of court. You do not need to fill in the number of the case, which will be assigned by the Prothonotary.

Fill in the requested information. Please note you have an obligation to continue to update the information contained on the form whenever there are changes.

After you have completed the form, please sign the form and print your name on the line underneath your signature.

10. HOW TO FILE THE COMPLAINT AND PETITION

You are now ready to file. Take all your papers to the Prothonotary's Office in the courthouse. If you are asking the court to waive the filing fee, you should have two different groups of papers. The first group contains the completed form of Complaint for Custody covered by Order form; the second group contains the completed form of Petition for Waiver of Costs covered by the completed form of Order for Waiver of Costs. The first group contains an original and at least two (2) copies; the second group contains an original and one (1) copy.

Present the two groups of papers to the Prothonotary. (If you choose to pay the filing fee, you can, and you need not submit the Petition for Waiver of Costs.) The Prothonotary will assign a number to the case and place that number on and "certify" all the documents. The Prothonotary will take the Petition for Waiver of Costs to the Judge.

When the Order waiving Costs and Order for the mediation orientation session are signed, the Prothonotary will return all the certified copies to you; the originals become part of the permanent court records. You should keep one copy of each document for yourself.

You must then promptly serve one copy of the certified Order (for mediation orientation session) and Complaint for custody upon each Defendant. Go on to the next heading for instructions on how to do so.

11. HOW TO SERVE THE COMPLAINT AND ORDER FOR THE MEDIATION ORIENTATION SESSION, COMPLETED CRIMINAL/ABUSE RECORD VERIFICATION FORM AND BLANK CRIMINAL/ABUSE RECORD VERIFICATION FORM.

You must give the other party (parent) legal notice that you have filed for custody. This type of notice is known as "service."

Service of the Order, Complaint, completed Criminal/Abuse Record form and blank Criminal/Abuse Record Verification form is your responsibility. It can be served by certified Mail. To do so, you must send the Complaint and Order by certified mail, return receipt requested, to be signed by the ADDRESSEE ONLY.

The addressee must be the Defendant. The Post Office can help you send certified mail.

When you mail certified mail, you will receive a "Sender's Receipt". Keep this. You will need this as proof of service.

Service must be made within thirty (30) days from the date the Complaint is filed in the Prothonotary's Office. However, you should mail the papers as soon as possible. The defendant must receive them at least ten (10) days before the conference.

Service is complete once the Defendant has received the papers.

You will have proof that service is completed once you receive back the "green card" from the "certified mailing" with the Defendant's signature on the card.

When you receive back the "green card", you need to attach it to and complete the form of Affidavit of Service.

The Affidavit of Service should be completed and filed with the Prothonotary. The sender's receipt and green card should be stapled to the Affidavit of Service when it is filed.

The Affidavit states that on a certain day you mailed a correct copy of the Order and Complaint by certified mail to the defendant's address. It also says that the defendant received it on a specific day. That date of receipt is on the green card.

12. HOW TO FILL OUT AND FILE THE AFFIDAVIT OF SERVICE

Caption. Once again, you must fill out the names and addresses of the parties plaintiff and defendant. Now that the action has been filed, it has a docket number that was assigned by the Prothonotary. The number appears on the copies you got back from the Prothonotary. Make sure that you neatly print or type the correct docket number in the space provided in the lower right hand side of the caption.

Fill in your name, the date you sent the papers to the defendant (which appears on your sender's receipt), the defendant's name and address, and the date the defendant received the papers (from the green card).

Staple your Sender's Receipt and Green Card to the Affidavit.

Make one photocopy of the Affidavit of Service. File the original with the Prothonotary. Keep a copy for yourself and bring it with you to the conference.

13. MEDIATION ORIENTATION SESSION

After you file the Complaint and Order you will be required to attend a mediation orientation session. You must call the phone number listed in the Order within ten (10) days of your filing of your Complaint. You cannot receive a hearing before the court until you and the Defendant named in your Complaint have completed the mediation orientation session. If the Defendant does not comply with the Order for the mediation orientation session, the Court will be notified by the Mediation Program Administrator, and the Court will take appropriate action.
