2. INTRODUCTION TO INSTRUCTIONS FOR PRO-SE CUSTODY ACTIONS

This packet will help you get an Order for custody or visitation on your own. "Pro se" is a legal term that means you are doing it on your own, without an attorney.

There are other words that have special meanings you should know about. Under the Rules of Court, the following words may mean things you wouldn't otherwise expect:

"Parental duties." Includes meeting the physical, emotional and social needs of the child/children

"Partial physical custody." The right to assume physical custody of the child/children for less than a majority of the time

"Physical custody." The actual physical possession and control of a child/children

"Primary physical custody." The right to assume physical custody of the child/children for the majority of time

"Shared legal custody." The right of more than one individual to legal custody of the child/children

"Shared physical custody." The right of more than one individual to assume physical custody of the child/children, each having significant periods of physical custodial time with the child/children

"Sole legal custody." The right of one individual to exclusive legal custody of the child/children

"Sole physical custody." The right of one individual to exclusive physical custody of the child/children

"Supervised physical custody." Custodial time during which an agency or an adult designated by the court or agreed upon by the parties monitors the interaction between the child/children and the individual with those rights

Before you begin, read completely each set of instructions.

3. GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR CHILD/CHILDREN CUSTODY AND VISITATION

These guidelines are provided to help you and the other parent be responsible, reasonable, and flexible in carrying out a child/children custody and visitation schedule for the best interest of your child/children. Naturally, they are general and do not address every problem.

Many misunderstandings arise because one parent does not inform the other parent of significant events in the child's/children's development, school problems or successes, athletic events, medical/dental issues, allergies or medication needs, recitals or church activities. Both parents have a right to be involved in the child's/children's significant events. Please remember to inform the other parent in time to prepare for that involvement.

1. The court order or agreement generally provides a schedule which must be followed unless the parties agree to change it.
2. Use the court order or agreement as the basic blueprint and adapt it to fit your changing needs.
3. However, if you cannot agree to changes with the other parent, then you both must obey the schedule set out in the court order or agreement.
4. If there are disputes or disagreements about the meaning of the order or agreement or if there are substantial changes in your or the other parent's living situation, contact your lawyer or the court. Do not simply disobey the order or agreement.
5. Neither parent generally has the right to be in the other's house without express permission.
6. Neither parent should use illegal drugs or drink an excessive amount of alcohol at any time, but especially not before or during periods of custody or visitation.
7. Transportation of the child/children by car by either parent (or anyone else) should be in a car which is in good running condition, currently inspected, registered, and insured, and driven in a safe manner by a responsible driver with a current valid license. A car seat for infants must be used. If only one parent has a car seat, it should be loaned to the other parent for use when the child/children is/are in that parent's custody.
8. The child/children should be ready to be picked up on time. The parent doing the transporting should be on time.
9. A parent should not expect to receive unscheduled or late night visits or to make changes in the schedule without adequate advance notice to the other parent. Call first or arrange it ahead of time.
10. The best time to agree on unscheduled visits or changes is at the end of the previous visit.
11. Both parents should recognize that illness, work schedules, car problems, and special opportunities may require changes, but that changes must not be proposed simply to prevent or make difficult the other parent's right to visit.
12. Both parents should be reasonable and flexible in making or responding to requests for changes.
13. Neither parent should threaten, harass, assault, or provoke the other parent.
14. Neither parent should curse at or run down the other parent, especially not in the child's/children's presence.
15. Both parents should remember that it is generally in the child's/children's best interests to know, love, and respect both parents.

You are now ready to go on to the form Mediation Scheduling Order.

5. HOW TO FILL OUT THE ORDER FOR THE MEDIATION ORIENTATION SESSION

After you complete the complaint, you should fill in the form entitled "ORDER". This form is the Order that will initiate your required mediation orientation session.

You only need to fill in the names of the Plaintiff, Defendant, and Intervenor(s) in the "caption" as you did for the form of Complaint. The caption should be the same on all the papers you fill out.

DO NOT FILL IN ANY OTHER BLANKS ON THE FORM OF ORDER

Arrange the form of order and the form of complaint so that form of Order is the top, covering page, and put them aside.

Later on, you will need to make at least two (2) photocopies of the package containing the order and complaint. (If you have named more than one Plaintiff/Defendant, you will need one (1) extra photocopy for each additional defendant. For example, if you named two (2) Plaintiff(s)/Defendant(s), you will need three (3) copies.

Since there are other documents you may need to make photocopies of, you may wish to hold off on making copies of the form of order and complaint until you have completed the remaining forms.

Once you have made copies, staple one form of order on top of one form of complaint for as many copies as you have made, plus the originals. Put all the copies aside.

You are now ready to go on to the form of Petition for Waiver of Costs.

6. HOW TO FILL OUT THE PETITION FOR WAIVER OF COSTS

INTRODUCTION. In order to file a new court action, there are usually filing fees which must be paid to the Prothonotary. Those fees change from time to time. You can check with the Prothonotary to find out how much it usually costs to file.

There may be other costs to consider. If no agreement is reached about custody, and the court has to decide who the child/children will live with, it may wish to order home studies or psychological evaluations of the child/children and parties. These things may cost more money. If the parties can afford it, the costs are usually placed on them by the court.

However, if you don't think you can pay the filing fees or other costs, you can ask the court to waive some or all of the costs.

If you can afford to pay the filing costs, you should. If you do pay the filing costs, you won't need to ask the court to waive costs at this time. (If, later on, you face costs you don't think you can afford, you can file at that time.)

On the other hand, if you cannot afford to pay the filing fee now, you will need to fill out another form.

The form you need to fill out is the Petition for Waiver of Costs. Once filed, the court will consider the information in your petition to decide whether to permit you to go forward without having to prepay filing fees. If the court later orders home studies or professionals to interview the child/children or parties, your petition may relieve you of some or all of those costs as well.

FILLING OUT THE FORM

Caption. Once again, you must fill in the names of the Plaintiff, Defendant, and Intervenor(s) in the "caption". The caption should be the same as on the form of complaint and form of order of court. You should fill in the number of the case.

Paragraph 3. The form asks you to fill in facts about your personal situation and finances, including your employment, income, expenses, debts and assets. Be sure to include income from all sources, including government benefits like public assistance, unemployment compensation, or food stamps. Don't forget money you may get from your spouse if you are married, from parents, friends or family, or from an order for child support. Be sure to include all payment obligations, such as utility, food and clothing expenses. Finally, identify all persons that depend on your income for support, including children and your spouse, if any. DO NOT INCLUDE MINOR CHILDREN'S NAMES USE CONFIDENTIAL FORM FOR THIS INFORMATION.

Paragraphs 4 and 5. Be sure to read these paragraphs. They require you to inform the court of any improvement in your financial circumstances that would permit you to pay some or all of the costs you are asking the court to waive. When you date and sign the petition after paragraph 5, you are promising that the information you have filled in is true. You can be punished for any false statement.

7. FILLING OUT THE ORDER FOR WAIVER OF COSTS

Caption. Fill in the names of the Plaintiff, Defendant, and Intervenor(s) as you have done on the other forms. You should fill in the number of the case.

There is nothing more for you to fill out on this form. If the court grants the petition, your custody action can proceed.

Place the form of Order for Waiver of Costs on top of the Petition for Waiver of Costs. You will need to make one (1) copy. (If you did not make copies of the complaint for Custody and scheduling Order of Court, you should do so at this time. Refer to heading number 4, HOW TO FILL OUT THE FORM OF SCHEDULING ORDER OF COURT. Staple one form Order for Waiver of Costs on top of each of the two (2) copies of Petition for Waiver of Costs. You are now ready to file all the papers with the Prothonotary.

8. HOW TO FILL OUT THE CRIMINAL / ABUSE HISTORY VERIFICATION FORM

Caption. Once again, you must fill in the names of the Plaintiff, Defendant, and Intervenor(s) in the "caption". The caption should be the same as on the form of complaint and form of order of court. You should fill in the number of the case.

Follow the Instructions on the first page of the form. Note that the form applies to you and any other adults living in your household. You must provide answers for every offense. You must also provide answers to questions 3, 4, and 5.

After you have completed the form, on behalf of yourself and ALL adults living in your household, please sign the form and print your name on the line underneath your signature.

9. HOW TO FILL OUT THE ENTRY OF APPEARANCE OF A SELF-REPRESENTED PARTY

Caption. Once again, you must fill in the names of the parties, plaintiff and defendant, in the "caption". The caption should be the same as on the form of complaint and form of order of court. You do not need to fill in the number of the case, which will be assigned by the Prothonotary.

Fill in the requested information. Please note you have an obligation to continue to update the information contained on the form whenever there are changes.

After you have completed the form, please sign the form and print your name on the line underneath your signature.

10. HOW TO FILE THE COMPLAINT AND PETITION

You are now ready to file. Take all your papers to the Prothonotary's Office in the courthouse. If you are asking the court to waive the filing fee, you should have two different groups of papers. The first group contains the completed form of Complaint for Custody covered by Order form and the Petition for Intervention; the second group contains the completed form of Petition for Waiver of Costs covered by the completed form of Order for Waiver of Costs. The first group contains an original and at least two (2) copies; the second group contains an original and one (1) copy.

Present the two (2) groups of papers to the Prothonotary. (If you choose to pay the filing fee, you can, and you need not submit the Petition for Waiver of Costs.). The Prothonotary will take the Petition for Waiver of Costs to the Judge.

When the Order waiving Costs and Order for mediation orientation session are signed, the Prothonotary will return all of the certified copies to you; the originals become part of the permanent court records. You should keep one (1) copy of each document for yourself.

You must then promptly serve one (1) copy of the certified Order (for mediation orientation session) and Complaint for Custody upon each Defendant. Go on to the next heading for instructions on how to do so.

11. HOW TO SERVE THE COMPLAINT, ORDER FOR THE MEDIATION ORIENTATION SESSION, AND CRIMINAL RECORD/ABUSE HISTORY VERIFICATION FORM

You must give the Plaintiff and Defendant legal notice that you have filed for custody. This type of notice is known as "service."

Service of the Complaint, Order, and Criminal Record Verification Form is your responsibility. These documents can be served by certified Mail. To do so, you must send the Complaint and Order by certified mail, return receipt requested, to be signed by the ADDRESSEE ONLY.

The addressee must be the Plaintiff and Defendant. The Post Office can help you send certified mail. When you mail certified mail, you will receive a "Sender's Receipt". Keep this. You will need this as proof of service.

Service must be made within thirty (30) days from the date the Complaint is filed in the Prothonotary's Office. However, you should mail the papers as soon as possible. The Plaintiff/Defendant must receive them at least ten (10) days before the conference.

Service is complete once the Plaintiff and Defendant have received the papers.

You will have proof that service is completed once you receive back the "green card" from the "certified mailing" with the Plaintiff and Defendant's signature on the cards.

When you receive back the "green card", you need to attach it to and complete the form of Affidavit of Service.

The Affidavit of Service should be completed and filed with the Prothonotary. The sender's receipt and green card should be stapled to the Affidavit of Service when it is filed.

The Affidavit states that on a certain day you mailed a correct copy of the Order and Complaint by certified mail to the Plaintiff and Defendant's address. It also says that the Plaintiff and Defendant received it on a specific day. That date of receipt is on the green card.

12. HOW TO FILL OUT AND FILE THE AFFIDAVIT OF SERVICE

Caption. Once again, you must fill out the names and addresses of the Plaintiff, Defendant, and Intervenor(s). Now that the action has been filed, it has a docket number that was assigned by the Prothonotary. The number appears on the copies you got back from the Prothonotary. Make sure that you neatly print or type the correct docket number in the space provided in the lower right hand side of the caption.

Fill in your name, the date you sent the papers to the Plaintiff and Defendant (which appears on your sender's receipts), the Plaintiff and Defendant's names and addresses, and the date the Plaintiff and Defendant received the papers (from the green card).

Staple your Sender's Receipt and Green Card to the Affidavit.

Make one photocopy of the Affidavit of Service. File the original with the Prothonotary. Keep a copy for yourself and bring it with you to the conference.

13. MEDIATION ORIENTATION SESSION

After you file the Complaint and Order, you will be required to attend a mediation orientation session. You must call the phone number listed in the Order within ten (10) days of your filing of your Complaint. You cannot receive a hearing before the Court until you and the Plaintiff/Defendant named in your Complaint have completed the mediation orientation session. If the Plaintiff/Defendant does not comply with the Order for the mediation orientation session, the Court will be notified by the Mediation Program Administrator, and the Court will take appropriate action.

14. HOW TO FILL OUT THE PETITION TO INTERVENE

Introduction. The Petition to Intervene is the document that you file to become a party in a custody action that has already been filed with the court. It gives the court basic facts about you, the other parties in the custody action, and the child/children who are the subjects of the custody action.

Complete the entire Petition. Do not leave any blank spaces.
